TO RECOMMENDER:

The LL.M. admission procedures at Saint Louis University School of Law requires that applicants to the LL.M. Program submit letters of recommendation with their completed applications. We are seeking recommendations that provide insight into the applicant's potential to successfully complete the LL.M. Program in American Law for Foreign Lawyers. It would be helpful to receive your insights into the applicant's character and intellectual capabilities, as well as details about the applicant's specific accomplishments and qualifications.

Below are a list of questions which may help you in providing us with useful information.

- What distinguishes the applicant from others? What special interests, personal qualities or motivations does he/she have?
- How does the applicant compare academically with other applicants?
- What information do you have about the applicant's potential for success in a demanding academic program in a foreign country, including his or her oral and written proficiency in English?
- What information do you have that can assist us in assessing the applicant's character and fitness to practice law?
- What other information do you have about the applicant that could be beneficial in assessing his/her candidacy?

Please submit a letter of recommendation on a separate letter on your letterhead, and sign the letter and attach it to this form. You should enclose this recommendation in the envelope provided by the applicant, seal and sign the back flap of the envelope, and mail this recommendation to the applicant. The applicant will submit this recommendation unopened to Saint Louis University School of Law.

APPLICATION FOR TUITION REMISSION GRANTS FOR SCHOOL YEAR 2009-2010

COST OF PROGRAM

Tuition for the 2009-2010 academic year is not yet set, tuition for the 2008–2009 academic year was U.S. $33,180. Fees for 2008–2009 were approximately $400, and the cost of books was projected at $1,500. Living expenses were estimated to be at least $12,000. These amounts tend to increase moderately from year to year.

TUITION REMISSION GRANTS

The School of Law awards a limited number of US $5000 tuition remission grants to foreign-educated lawyers who apply to the LL.M. program. To be eligible to be considered for a grant, applicants must submit a completed LL.M. application no later than the April 1, 2009 regular deadline (although awards may be made on a rolling basis). The grant is equally divided between the fall and spring semester of the academic year in which the student is enrolled in the LL.M. Program.

OBTAINING SPONSORS AND/OR OUTSIDE AID

In addition to partial tuition remission grants administered by the School of Law, students can find other financial resources to enable them to participate in the LL.M. Program. Students should explore loan and assistance programs in their home countries and through international organizations.

ELIGIBILITY

Tuition Remission Grants awarded to students are determined by thorough documentation of financial need, fund availability, the number of eligible applications received by the application deadline of April 1, 2009, and other financial resources that the student will have access to for funding his/her education. Applicants that receive a grant from the School of Law do so under the condition that he/she informs the School of Law if any other financial source is received. The School of Law reserves the right to adjust the grant because of undisclosed information.

Please accurately complete the following information, being sure to provide all financial figures in U.S. dollars. It is needed to complete your request for Tuition Remission Grants. All information will be kept confidential.
